

MACHAKOS UNIVERSITY

University Examinations 2022/2023 academic year

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY, SPECIAL NEEDS EDUCATION

THIRD YEAR FIRST SEMESTER EXAMINATION FOR BACHELOR OF EDUCATION (SPECIAL NEEDS EDUCATION)

ESN 313: MEDICAL ASPECTS FOR CHILDREN WITH PHYSICAL HANDICAPPS AND OTHER HEALTH IMPAIRMENTS

DATE:

TIME:

INSTRUCTIONS

Answer question ONE and any other TWO questions.

QUESTION ONE (30 MARKS)

- Explain five reasons why physical handicap is referred to as a visible disability (10 marks)
- Discuss five ways in which a physical disability interferes school attendance or learning (10 marks)
- Explain five post-natal causes of physical handicapping conditions (10 marks)

QUESTION TWO (20 MARKS)

- Identify three factors that are likely to trigger an attack in a learner who is epileptic (6 marks)
- Outline seven steps that a teacher can take to manage an epileptic child during a seizure (14 marks)

QUESTION THREE (20 MARKS)

- Discuss five methods that are likely to spread poliomyelitis (10 marks)
- Examine five ways through which poliomyelitis can affect a learner educational performance (10 marks)

Examination Irregularity is punishable by expulsion

QUESTION FOUR (20 MARKS)

- a) Discuss five problems associated with the use of prosthesis for learners who are amputated (10 marks)
- b) Identify five intervention strategies to support learners with hemophilia (10 marks)

QUESTION FIVE (20 MARKS)

- a) Discuss eight symptoms of osteogenesis imperfecta (OI) (16 marks).
- b) Suggest four ways a teacher can help a learner with osteogenesis imperfecta learn in a normal school (4 marks)